

Position

Director, Litigation Support and Forensic Services

Professional Experience

Bruce G. Knapp is the Practice Leader and Director of Doeren Mayhew's Litigation Support and Forensic Services Group. He has qualified as an expert witness and has testified in a number of forums including jury and bench trials, arbitration, and depositions. His analysis requires technical and practical expertise in all stages of the valuation process including client engagement, data and statistical research, interpretation of court and IRS rulings, quality control, and reporting formats. Over the course of his tenure he has gained extensive experience in a variety of business valuation and specialized consulting engagements, including but not limited to:

- Stockholder agreements
- Buy-sell agreements
- Shareholder dispute actions
- Estate and gift tax issues
- Marital dissolution
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Buy side/sell side transactions
- Charitable contribution issues
- Succession planning
- Forensic accounting issues
- Evaluation and computation of economic loss analysis
- Settlement planning and negotiations
- Expert testimony
- Analysis and evaluation of opposing experts report

Education

Bachelor of Business Science in Accounting degree
(Summa Cum Laude) – University of Detroit

Certified Valuation Analyst – National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts

Accredited in Business Valuation – American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Certified in Financial Forensics – American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Membership and Affiliations

National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants –
Business Valuation and Litigation Task Force, past Chair

Institute of Business Appraisers

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners