

James P. O'Rilley, CPA, MST

Profile

Position

Tax Director

Professional Experience

James P. O'Rilley began his career with the firm in 1987 and became a tax director in 1997. He is a specialist in multi-state tax issues and planning. His client responsibilities include compliance, research, and communication of tax-planning techniques. He works with closely held corporations in various industries, including construction, steel processing, manufacturing, automobile dealerships, computer technology and software, and services.

Education

Bachelors of Arts degree – Michigan State University
Master of Science in Taxation degree – Walsh College

Membership and Affiliations

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants
Michigan Chamber of Commerce – Tax Policy
Committee
Michigan State University Alumni Association
Oakhurst Golf and Country Club – past President
Construction Financial Management Association