

Joseph A. Amine, CPA

---

Profile

Position

Director

Professional Experience

Joseph A. Amine began his career with the firm in 1990. He is director in charge of the international firm of Moore Stephens Doeren Mayhew and has client responsibility in various industries. He is the immediate past chairman of Moore Stephens North America, Inc. Mr. Amine has significant experience in the areas of bankruptcy, debt restructuring, and mergers and acquisitions. He also has industry experience as a corporate controller for an international company that grew substantially and went public under his direction.

Membership and Affiliations

Past Chairman of the Board – Moore Stephens North America, Inc.

Past Chairman – Moore Stephens North America

International Tax Committee

Board Member – Automation Alley

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants

President's Cabinet of the University of Detroit Mercy

Past Finance Chairman – Detroit Artists Market Party in the Park

Board Member – Finance Committee of Detroit Province for the Society of Jesus

Published author and frequent guest speaker