

Patrick D. Fuelling, CPA

Profile

Position

Audit and Accounting Director

Professional Experience

Patrick D. Fuelling began his career with the firm in 1993 and became manager in 1998, and partner in 2005. He has extensive experience involving diverse industry groups. Types of clients include non-profit organizations, auto dealerships, general and specialty construction contractors, manufacturers, professional corporations, health care providers, and municipalities. His responsibilities include supervision and involvement in various audit, review, compilation and management consulting engagements.

Education

Bachelor of Business Administration degree – Western Michigan University

Medallion Scholar – Western Michigan University

Membership and Affiliations

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants

Western Michigan University Alumni Association

Western Michigan University – Department of Accountancy Advisory Council

Construction Financial Management Association of Southeast Michigan – Board of Directors

Associated General Contractors of Michigan

Michigan Non-Profit Association

Affordable Housing Association of CPAs

Salvation Army Harbor Light Advisory Council